

Nannie Baker Coleman

August 27, 1933 - April 24, 2011

Nannie Barksdale Coleman was born from the union of the late Charlie Barksdale and the late Perinie K. Chandler in South Boston, Virginia on August 27, 1933. She was called home to be with the Lord on April 24, 2011. Preceding her in death two brothers, Charlie Fulton, Jr. and Jimmy Barksdale and two step-sons; Elwood Jr. and Phillip Coleman.

Nannie was educated in the South Boston City Public School System.

She was baptized in Jesus name and accepted Christ into her life at an early age. She was a faithful and devoted member of New Covenant Apostolic Church in Richmond, VA. for many years-where she served as a missionary and was elevated to Evangelist. She served diligently as a nurse and companion for the late Pastor Evan. Sue I Edwards. She also was a teacher at our first school and continued until her health failed. She also served as first Lady at Grace and Mercy Apostolic Church.

Nannie married Elwood Coleman in June of 1979. Although she didn't biologically have any children, she accepted Elwood's children as her own. She was a loving wife and mother to thirteen step-children, where God was top priority followed by love and discipline. She believed in keeping family together-which overflowed from the home to the church-where she was given the title "mother" by many of the saints. She was a humble and unyielding servant. Nannie touched us all with her gift of spiritual guidance, advice, intercession, welcoming spirit and ability to teach the word as its written in the bible. She loved life and all of God's precious people.

Nannie leaves to cherish her memory, her husband, Elwood Coleman; two sisters, Geneva Stovall and Leona Palmer; daughters, Naomi Sarbo (Robert), Hannah Alghaffaar (Tim), Ressie Simms, Dorcas, Martha, Esther Kyna Coleman; sons, Samuel, Ezra (Lisa).
