

Nannie Gregory

October 26, 1930 - October 6, 2020

Nannie J. Gregory, daughter of the late, Taft Redd and the late, Ida Harris was born on October 26, 1930 in Rice (Amelia County), Virginia. She transitioned, peacefully, on Tuesday, October 6, 2020, just weeks before her 90th birth date.

Nannie was educated in the Amelia County, Virginia School System and later moved to Baltimore, Maryland with her mother and sisters.

Nannie worked until her retirement in the manufacturing industry. She later use her love for others by providing care as a personal care provider; receiving numerous awards and citations.

Full of life, Nannie took advantage of her 89 years on earth. She was known for playing cards, shopping with her sisters, doing crossword puzzles, gardening, watching westerns on TV., going to the casino with her husband and sisters, and enjoying the simple things of life, just by spending time with friends/family, or simply sitting on her patio.

She gave her life to Christ at an early age and later, rededicated her life to Christ when she joined Macedonia Baptist Church.

Although Nannie never had children of her own, she had two step-sons, who cared for and loved her dearly.

Nannie was preceded in death by her father, Taft Redd; her mother, Ida Harris; and two sisters, Lilly Taylor and Mattie Bland.

She leaves to cherish her memory: a devoted husband, Stephen Gregory, Jr.; two step-sons, Anthony Gregory and Steven D. Gregory; nine step-grandchildren, eleven step-great-grandchildren; one sister-in-law, Edna Williams; one nephew, Henry Redd; great nieces/nephews, Maressa, Marcell, Henry, Jr., and Jessica; as well as a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.
