

Nannie Lee Boydner

June 6, 1915 - April 10, 2004

Mother, Nannie Lee Boydner, daughter of the late James Hall and Nannie Brown Hall was born in Blackstock, S.C. on June 6, 1915. She departed this life on Saturday, April 10, 2004. Nannie attended the South Carolina public schools. After completing her program, she moved to Charlotte N.C. where she met her husband, the late Nolie Boydner. In 1983, Nolie preceded her in death. From their union nine children were born, including two sets of twins. One twin daughter and two sons, Alonzo and Robert (Odell) also preceded their mother in death. Mother Boydner, as she was affectionately called, was a great friend, mother and sister to those of us who had the privilege of knowing her. Since 1955, she was a faithful member of the Faith Tabernacle Church, under the leadership of Pastor, Lucille Calloway. Mother loved her church family and did what she could to help in the furtherance of the ministry. Mother did not need to work up the spirit. The mere mention of the name of Jesus would cause her spirit to quicken. We often laughed, and said she was washing clothes, as she expressed her love for God. In her early years, she was known as a good cook. However, there was so much more to her, than being a good cook. Although, being a good cook did not hurt her calling. (Smile), God blessed her with a help's ministry, and he also gave her the biggest heart, with which to fulfill her mission. She would reach out to people in need, even when they took advantage of her generosity. Mother was the kind of woman that King Solomon spoke of in Proverbs 31, when he asked, who can find a virtuous woman, for her price is far above rubies. She was the crown jewel who will always be remembered fondly by her friends and family. Mother Boydner is survived by four daughters, Jannie, Jeanette, Josephine and Eloise; two sons, Eddie and Joseph; one brother, Eddie Hall; one sister, Jeanette Boyd; three sisters-in-law, Ronnie Mae Crowder, Leila and Betty Hall; one brother-in-law, Willie Boyd; one daughter-in-law, Jackie; two sons-in-law, Douglas and Franklin; eleven grandchildren, three step-grandchildren, fourteen great grandchildren, five great, great, grandchildren, seven nieces, five nephews and a host of relatives and friends.

“ My family and I are truly sorry to hear of your loss. We hope you find comfort in God. The Bible says at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation."##imported-begin##Kenneth Adams##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your mother. Our family finds much comfort in the promises of the Bible. One such promise is John 5:28,29- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May these words give you much needed strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
