

Nannie Weaver Moore

January 31, 1925 - February 17, 2016

Nannie Weaver Moore born on January 31, 1925 left this world on february 17, 2016. She leaves behind a host of family members whom loved her dearly. Although stubborn she was very independent and outspoken. No was ever the option for her. Before Nannie retired she had given 40 years to government service. She was serious about all she had done. She was respected by everyone. Although she never bore any children of her own, her doll collection was her passion. She crotched dresses for her dolls, snowflakes and so much more. Nannie was the image of independence and a very classy lady.

"WE were the Last of two Nannie and Marjorie in a family of 12 siblings. We have traveled from the east coast to the west coast. Through every tunnel across every bridge. From boardwalks in Atlantic City to the Hollywood sign in California. We've journeyed to Montreal for the World Series, to Hawaii and many more places. We were inseparable sisters, n o love greater than God's himself. Together we have gone through the sky and under the water. I know I'll meet you up yonder." - Marjorie
