

Nannie Moore Morris

September 20, 1911 - July 19, 2010

Nannie Moore Morris, daughter of the late James Thomas and Hattie Bell Hampton, was born on September 20, 1911 in King and Queen County, Virginia. She departed this life on July 19, 2010.

She received her education at Contra Primary School in Crouch, Virginia. She moved to Baltimore as a young woman and worked as a maid for many years. Nannie was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Squire Morris Jr., and they raised four children. Nannie joined Word of Faith Cathedral where she was a devoted member for years, appointed church mother and sang on the choir until she was unable to continue attendance due to her health. Her daughter then arranged for Nannie to have prayer and worship at home.

She was preceded in death by three children, sons Joseph and James Earl and daughter Marion.

She is survived by: her daughter, Haloria Bey; sister, Grace Banks; brother-in-law, Alfred Banks; Daughter-in-law Ora Hampton; son-in-law, Ravanna Bey; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.
