

Nannie P. Vaughn

January 25, 1928 - February 25, 2013

NANNIE PASEDNA VAUGHN departed this life on February 25, 2013 after a long life.

She was born on January 25, 1928 to Carson Hubbard and Mary Sue Edmonds Hubbard in Halifax County, Virginia. She attended school in Halifax County, Virginia until her family moved to Baltimore, Maryland.

She continued her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She attended Bates High School in Annapolis, Maryland, Paul Laurence Dunbar High School and Carver Vocational Technical High School in Baltimore, Maryland where she studied Dressmaking.

During this time she met and married Lem Emerson Vaughn in 1949 who preceded her in death in 2005.

She went on to work in many factories, including Raleigh Manufacturing and the Gann Corporation.

She leaves to mourn: eight children — four daughters, Betty Sutherlin, Mary Black and Shirley Murphy of Baltimore, Maryland, Sylvia Wainwright of Palm Springs, California and four sons, Emerson Vaughn, Jr. of Baltimore, Maryland, Donald Vaughn of Virginia Beach, Virginia,

Ronald Vaughn of Hampton, Virginia and Reginald Vaughn of Baltimore, Maryland; nineteen grandchildren, twenty-four great-grandchildren, five great-great-grandchildren; and a host of many relatives and special friends.

“TO MY CHILDREN: I cannot name all the Love and Care you showed me. I can say I smelled my flowers while I lived. I tried to help somebody as I passed along. I believed my living has not been in vain.”

Love, MOM

The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away.

Blessed Be The Name of

“ To the family of Nannie P. Vaughn:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). To find the Bible's satisfying answers to many other questions, please go to the website jw.org.

“ Grandma, It won't be the same without you...I'm gonna miss running in the backdoor and yelling your name and you dialing my cellphone number by accident...Thank you so much for every lesson, every listening ear, all the advice and teachings....I am who I am all because of you and I am ever so grateful... You will forever be in my heart...Our love was no secret and I thank God for blessing me with the BEST grandmother in the world!!
Love, Nise

“ I am so sorry for your loss, may you find comfort in the scriptures at Revelation 21:4 "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore."

“ ” To the family of Mrs. Nannie Vaughn,
My sincerest condolences to you and yours. Members of my families, and others, who grew up in the "LaRue Square/Seamon Avenue area of Cherry Hill, have only fond memories of your mother. Always pleasant, friendly, and engaging." Surely, she will be missed. To those who are the survivors I say: "Dum Vivalis, Vivamus" ("While we live;let us live!")

“ To the family of Mrs. Nannie:

I wanted to send my condolences to your family. I hope the memories of her help to ease your pain of sorrow. Remember that she is not suffering but is asleep in death waiting on the fulfillment of John 5:28 & 29, which states, " Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice (Jesus voice) & come out."

I will be praying in your family behalf.

Love,

Dear Mother, although I lived the farthest away I always felt I was so close to home. I believe I raised Dominique and Jason the way you and Daddy raised all of us, that is to be loving, kind, honest, and true to our word. As I sat and held your hand that last night, I thought of all the lessons you taught me and some of the ones I wished I'd had time for you to still teach me. I do believe that I learned the best of them though. I am able to remain strong in the face of adversity. I am able to speak my word clearly, mean it, and live by it, and I am able to still love unconditionally and welcome all who pass my way. I will continue to watch the video I made of you making chicken and dumplings and I know one day I will get it right! Until then and after that I will continue to thank God every day that he gave us to you. Sleep well Mother and tell Daddy hello from me. Love, Sylvia
