

Nannie Bell Wilkins

August 9, 1932 - March 5, 2013

Nannie Bell Wilkins was born August 9, 1932 to the late Charlie May Boyd and Henry Tucker in Chase City, Virginia. She was the second child of four siblings. She was called home to the pearly gates on a rainy night, March 5, 2013. She was preceded in death by her husband, Thomas L. Wilkins of 30 years; three siblings, Louise Robertson, Andrew Tucker and Maybelle Tucker; and a niece, Barbara Ann Tucker.

She was a member of Apostle Church of Faith under the leadership of James Robinson. Nannie was a faithful member until her health began to fail.

She was formerly employed by Siegel's, Padows and Community Pride where she was a dedicated employee. Nannie was a very reserved, quite, strong woman that enjoyed spending time with family and friends. She was a very kind-hearted, giving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother and friend. She had a heart of honesty, integrity and someone you could always depend on.

A life touched by God, always ends in touching others.

She leaves to cherish her memory two loving sons, Wayne Wilkins (Sonya) and Leon Wilkins; step-daughter, Sandra Smith; granddaughter, Simone Wilkins; a host of in-laws, Miriam Mayhew (Michael), Shirley Jackson, Henry Wilkins, James Wilkins and Solomon Wilkins; two caring nephews, Charles and Vincent, other relatives and friends.

For His anger is but for a moment, but His favor is for a lifetime or in His favor is life. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.

Psalm 30:5

“ To the family of Nannie Bell Wilkins:

Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
