“ I would like to express my sympathy to Ms. Thompson's family and friends. The loss of one so dearly loved can be painful, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to First Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Then, Daniel 12:2 states, "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." These are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May you continue to find comfort in the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere and heartfelt condolences for the loss of Naomi. Sadly, death touches all of our lives sooner or later. Was this God's purpose for us? To live 70 or 80 years, then get sick and die. Many don't even live that long. Even little babies pass away sometimes from sickness or a tragic circumstance. But the bible lets us know that God gave mankind a wonderful start in the Garden of Eden; a beautiful home, good food to eat, and satisfying work to do. Sadly, they didnot appreciat his love, so they rebelled against him. But God took immediate steps to undo what Adam and Eve brought upon the entire human race. Romans 5:12. He would never let any human or angel change his purpose. Actually his name Jehovah means, "He causes to become." So God can do or become whatever he has to to see his purpose carried out!. Adam brought death upon us, but Jehovah through Jesus will give eternal life back to us. John 3:16. 1st Cor 15:22 promises: "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ, all will be made alive." Indeed, one day the dead will come out of the memorial tombs, because they will hear Jesus's voice calling them back to life. John 5:28,29 May you find much comfort and strength in this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
