

Naomi P. Howard

November 22, 1927 - September 4, 2004

Naomi P. Howard, daughter of the late Willie W. and Estell Carpenter, was born November 22, 1927 in Greensville County, Virginia. She departed this life on September 4, 2004 after a short illness. She received her primary education in the public schools of Greensville County. Upon completion of her education she moved to New Port News, Va. and began working in the sea food industry. She later married the late Charles Howard, and of this union one child was born, Lydia. After relocating to Middletown, Connecticut she began working for the State of Connecticut as a Medical Technician, from which she retired in the late 1980's. She subsequently moved back to Baltimore, Maryland. Naomi was always active in many churches and later became a member of the Gethsemane Bible Baptist Church where she was accepted as the "Mother of the Church, and remained in that position until her death. She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Lydia; four brothers, Hawthorne, Willie, Earl and Curley; and a host of nieces, nephews and many other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
