

Naomi T. Ellington

July 15, 1937 - March 26, 2006

NAOMI ELLINGTON, wife of the late Willie Ellington and daughter of the late Charlie and Esther J. Thomas, was born on July 15, 1937. She ascended from this life on March 26, 2006 after a lengthy illness. She received her education first at Douglass High School, graduating at the top of her class. Always one to lead by example, she trail-blazed her way into the University of Baltimore. While attending the University of Baltimore, Naomi started her long and successful career for the Department of Social Services. There she made many life long friends as she demonstrated her ability to make all around her better. She retired in 1984. Naomi married the late Willie Ellington in 1960, and out of this union one child was born, William. Naomi will be truly missed; such love and devotion can never be matched nor replaced. Her physical form may be gone, but all that knew her will carry a part of her in their heart. She leaves to mourn: her son, William; sisters, Ruth Christian (twin) and Hattie Harris; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God’s promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the lost of our love ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God’s promised purpose for us.##imported-begin##B Carter##imported-end##
