

Naomi E. Wagstaff

May 13, 1933 - September 12, 2020

Naomi Elizabeth Wagstaff (Elmore) was born on May 13, 1933 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late George William Elmore and Augusta (Lawson) Elmore. She was one of 8 children born to this union. Naomi had 3 siblings who were born in Loudon County, Virginia prior to her birth. Saturday, September 12, 2020, God called her from labor to reward after a brief illness.

She was a fun-loving person and devoted wife to the late John Parker, and from this union she had seven children. Naomi joined in union with the late Kelly Wagstaff, however, there were no children from this union.

Naomi was educated in the Baltimore Public School System. As a young woman, Naomi became an active church member of the Israel Baptist Church. She was a dedicated employee to Perfect Garment, The Church Home Hospital, Johns Hopkins Hospital and Baltimore City Recreation and Parks. Her sense of humor and quick wit was a memorable characteristic that anyone who encounter her would know and love.

She was dedicated to her family and she loved to dance, play bingo, and make sure that you left her presence with a smile on your face. Naomi was affectionately known as Mi, Ms. Naomi, Lillian, and GG.

Ten siblings proceeded her in death: Wilhemina, Rena, William, Vernon,

Wilbert, Roland, Robert, Joseph and Eunice.

Naomi leaves to treasure her memories, loving and devoted family members: son John Jr. (Dyan), son Leroy (Rhonda), daughter Loretta, son Anthony, Daughter Zelma. She had two children who preceded her in death daughter Sheila and son Donald. She leaves to mourn one brother Rudolph Elmore and a host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and friends.

“Granny, I miss you. I often think about your last words to me. I wish I was able to honor those words prior to your passing. The void I feel is indeed my challenger. Your expressions were authentic and you spoke from the gut till your last days. I always felt I inherited your spirit, I carry it with me everywhere I go (and a little extra 😊). It's time I prepare a place for your spirit so that I may honor you properly as the matriarch that you are. You deserved to live via those who respect and love you.

I will never forget

I will never forget

I will never forget

I ❤️ You

“The Lord is near to all who call;
He promised in His holy Word
That if we will draw near to Him,
Our faintest cry will be heard.
My God continue to comfort all of you as we continue to lift you in prayer!
