“ I wish I could give you many more years. I wish I could erase away all of your tears. I want to take away all of your pain. I want to give you sunshine in the rain. May each new day be a perfect gift. May love surround you, may your spirits lift. If someone had rest easy baby girl to describe you so many words come to mind. Beauty and grace, a heart so kind. You radiate warmth like a blazing fire. You are courage and wisdom. You truly inspire. You attract like a magnet beautiful things. You sparkle and shine like a diamond ring. You light up a room when you walk in. If someone feels sad you can make them grin. You are elegant and charming. You know right from wrong. You are the melody from a beautiful love song. You are a breath of fresh air on a hot summer's night. When there is darkness you turn on the light. I do not want these words to make you cry. I do not want to ever say goodbye. I believe miracles really do come true. No one deserves one more than you. Please know how many lives you touch. These words are my present. You are loved so much.

“ Please accept my deepest condolences and sorrow for the loss of your beautiful baby Naysa. The pain and grief of losing a child can not be compared. Please know that Gods' Word really can give us a great measure of comfort ,and be a salve for your broken heart. Jesus tells us at John 5:28,29 "do not marvel at this.....all those in the memorial tombs will come out". Our loving Creator Jehovah God promises to bring back little Naysa in the resurrection to here on earth in the very near future (Psalms 37:10,11, and 29 and Revelation 21:3,4). He will do this just like the nine cases documented for us in the Bible, one of these being a little girl (Matthew 9:18-26). Death is unnatural,it was not supposed to be this way. That is why it is so hard comprehend . God actually calls death an enemy Isaiah 25:8 ,that must be swallowed up. May your family draw much comfort in in his promises. You may find more encouraging information if you wish at www.jw.org. May you and yours find peace.
