

Natalie Gee

February 26, 1960 - February 22, 2023

NATALIE GEE was born on February 26, 1960 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Florence and Roosevelt Gee. She departed this life after a short battle of cancer on February 22, 2023, surrounded by family and close friends.

Natalie attended Northern Senior High School and later the Community College of Baltimore County.

During her 19 years of medical service at Johns Hopkins Hospital, she held a title of a recruiter, trainer, and supervisor as a Phlebotomist in Pathology. She excelled in providing optimal patient care and was a dedicated team player.

Natalie was a simple woman, and she held the same daily routine for over 20 years. This includes coffee and a donut at 4am. Followed by a trip to 7-eleven for her daily lottery and scratch-offs. She has spent most of her adult years as a caregiver to her late parents. In her free time, Natalie has become a huge hit on social media (Aunty Chronicles) where she was known as Baltimore's Favorite Aunty. She was known for her quick comebacks and snarky attitude. She was fierce, feisty, and just plain hilarious. She was also known for taking care of other people and giving her last when needed.

Natalie was preceded by death by her brothers Alfred Gee, Raymond Gee (Maybe), and Gerald Gee.

Natalie leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters, Lakiya and Haile Jones of Baltimore; one sister, Veronica Gee of Baltimore; two brothers, Roosevelt Gee Jr. of New York and Emmanuel Gee of Baltimore; several nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Natalie made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her.
