

Natalie Lillian Kamau

January 25, 1954 - March 8, 2004

Natalie Lillian Kamau, daughter of the late Celestine Ferguson and Earl Ferguson, Sr. was born on January 25, 1954 in Chicago, Illinois. She departed this life on March 8, 2004 after a long battle with breast cancer. She received her education in the Roosevelt, New York Public School System. She was a bright and energetic child with a lot of goals and dreams. On May 18, 1983 she was married to her husband Kalungi Kamau, and they were loving parents of two children, Haneef and Eyginai. Both her children were the apples of her eye and she always wanted the best for her children. In 1994 Natalie founded the David Walder Cultural Society, Inc. in Staten Island, New York. This organization taught young children the importance of African American Culture. This included drama plays, talent shows, art shows, summer youth Camps, Chess tournaments, etc. Her two most memorable plays were the Icky Flake show and Claim Jumping, which aired on Staten Island's Community Access Television. She was a powerful community activist and was always involved in political decisions that affected citizens on the North Shore of Staten Island. Natalie was a long time tenant association president for the Fox Hills Apartments as well as the Assistant Property Manager for Unit 3 in Newark, New Jersey. In 2000 God blessed Natalie with the ability to buy a home in Baltimore, Maryland, and in 2001 she joined New Psalmist Baptist Church, under the Pastorate of Reverend Dr. Walter Scott Thomas, Sr. While a member, she joined the Chancel Choir. Her religious conviction was revealed in her life and she was steadfast in her faith throughout her illness. Up until Natalie's death she worked as a property manager for Lansdowne Apartments. She also worked very diligently on one published book "Evidence of Things Unseen" which was her first literary work of faith. She also had literary works that were not yet published. It is the faith of God that sustained Natalie during her five years of illness. She displayed awesome level of courage and was an inspiration to all whose lives she touched. To cherish her memory she leaves behind: her husband, Kalungi; son, Haneef and daughter Eyginai; grandson, Jailon; two brothers, Earl Jr. and Ellis; four sisters, Sherrald, Lillian, Ethean and Patricia. She also leaves to mourn many aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews and other relatives as well as family friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Natalie Lillian Kamau

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Natalie Lillian Kamau

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family of Mrs. Kamau: Mere words cannot express the grief you are going through. However, may you find solace in the holy scriptures which says at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 "Blessed be ... the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulations." Continue to draw strength from the scriptures and your family/friends.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the Kamau family: I am so sorry to hear of your loss. The Bible gives us a wonderful hope of a resurrection. John 5:28,29 says, "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." I hope you find comfort in these words as I have.##imported-begin##Ruth Thomas##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My Condolences to the family.I want to share the promises from the Holy Bible that has been very comforting to me. John 5:28,29 says:"The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out,those who did good things to a resurrection of life." also, 1 Corinthians 15:26 says:"As the last enemy, death is to brought to nothing." It is my hope that these words bring you comfort in the days ahead##imported-begin##Shawn Roseborough##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ With sincere sympathy from the Officers of B Shift Baltimore City Detention Center.##imported-begin##Captain Kevin R. Hargrave Sr.##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ There is now a missing soprano voice in the Chancel Choir of the New Psalmist Baptist Church. Natalie, we'll truly miss your presence and your beautiful spirit.##imported-begin##Ingrid D. Woods (Choir Director, New Psalmist Baptist Church)##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ May God bless you and keep you in your time of sorrow. The memories we shared and love given by Nat will give us strength as we continue of journey thru life. She lives within us. Nat's in a better place and knowing that will give us Peace. I love you all so much. Wanda, Jr, Twanda, Tylek.##imported-begin##Wanda Rhodes & Family##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM