“ I'm very sorry to hear about your loss. Though I may not have a memory of Nathan, I know most certainly that he is in God's memory. And wouldn't you agree that this is the safest place to be? Especially since God's word highlights hope for all those that dwell in his memory, at John 5:28, 29 it reads: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs [or God's memory] will hear his [Christ Jesus] voice and come." This is a promise from God, from which we can gain comfort.
