

Nathan N. Stewart

November 26, 1932 - April 8, 2011

NATHAN STEWART, was born to the late Mary Jane Stewart on November 26, 1932 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this earthly life on April 8, 2011 after a lengthy illness at the Courtland Gardens Nursing & Rehabilitation Center.

Nathan was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools System. He served in the US Army and after being Honorably Discharged, Nathan met and married Ms. Claudette Brooks. Nathan held many different jobs until being hired by the Baltimore Gas & Electric Company (BG&E). In addition to his career at BG&E, Nathan loved to do all kinds of home improvement work.

Nathan was an avid Jazz fan. You could always find him preparing to travel to one of the many Jazz concerts he attended. Other passions of Nathan include fishing, cooking at the family outings and traveling to visit relatives on the Eastern Shore.

Nathan was one of ten children, four brothers: Milton Stewart (deceased), David Mitchell, Joseph Mitchell (deceased), William Stewart (deceased), Rudy Washington, Marion Grant, and Marcella Stewart (deceased).

Nathan leaves to cherish his memories: brothers: David Mitchell; sisters: Ruby Washington and Marion Grant; sister-in-law: Thelma Stewart; Mable Mitchell and Shirley Mitchell and a host of nephews, nieces, and friends.
