

Nathaniel Allen Black, Jr.

June 29, 1962 - October 8, 2011

Nathaniel Allen Black, Jr., more affectionately known as "Boo" and "Nat", departed this life suddenly on Saturday, October 8, 2011 at his residence. He was born on June 29, 1962 the first of four children born to Nathaniel Sr. and Lillian Black.

"Boo" grew up in Charles City and attended the public schools, graduating from Charles City High School in June, 1980. At an early age he accepted Christ as his personal Savior and joined Parrish Hill Baptist Church.

"Boo" was employed by United Parcel Service (UPS) as a Feeder Driver for the past 22 years.

"Boo" was full of jokes- anyone who came in contact with him fell in love with. He loved to work in his yard, and remodeled his home. His favorite saying was "Is that right?"

On April 12, 1986, he married his "soul mate", Glenda Jones, and from that union two sons were born.

Nathaniel ("Boo") leaves to cherish his memories his loving and devoted wife of 25 years, Glenda Jones Black; his two sons: Antonio D. "Tony" Black of Charles City, VA and National A. "Snoodie" Black, III of Richmond, VA; his

“ To the family of Nathaniel you have my deepest sympathy. Nathaniel is only sleeping waiting for Acts 24:15 to be fulfilled when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous until then may you keep the joyest memories of Nathaniel close to your heart and may Jehovah God comfort you in this time of need.
