“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. At times like these it may seem that there is no source of comfort. No source of relief from your sorrow. I have been able to find comfort in God's word, The Bible. I have found comfort from the wonderful hope expressed at Acts 24:15 and the promise made at John 5:28, 29. May these serve as a source of comfort for you.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family at this most difficult time. Please know that the God of all comfort is with you who comforts us in all of our tribulations. One day all sorrow, sickness, and death will be a thing of the past, and our dead loved ones will come to life again. Rev 21,4 makes us this wonderful promise: "And he will wipe out every tear from thier eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away." It is God's will that people live forever in peaceful and secure condtions. Notice this promise at Isiah 65:17: "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart." May you be comforted by these wonderful bible promises, and may your cherished memories of Nathaniel help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
