

Nathaniel Byrd Jr.

April 25, 1969 - April 2, 2013

God came quietly in the wee hours of the morning on Tuesday, April 2, 2013, wrapped His arms around NATHANIEL and walked with him home.

On April 25, 1968 in Baltimore, Maryland, Nathaniel Byrd Sr. and Elsie Mae Lyle-Byrd were blessed with one of God's most precious gifts to a man and a woman, the birth of another child, a son, NATHANIEL JULLIOUS BYRD JR., "June June," as he was lovingly known.

It did not matter to either that he was different, for them both, he was perfect in every way and no one was allowed to say anything different. They both just loved him unconditionally and it was visible in everything they did for him or with him.

June June in his life-time never uttered a single spoken word, but never the less, he was quite the communicator. He knew exactly how to get his point across and if you were in the way when he needed to make a point, you would not be for very long. He was a loving soul with such gentle eyes and a smile that we will never forget.

Nathaniel and Elsie always knew that they wanted the best for their children and that meant all of them. So in an era when there was not many educational choices for the mentally challenged individuals, they looked for the best school to enroll June June in and they found it, the school of Chimes. A school that was equipped to educate him as a child and throughout his adult life.

June June loved school and he would wake up on his own every morning so that he could get ready, even if that meant waking his Mom with a push or a pull. Even on Saturday, he would wake up automatically but sitting and watching cartoons would have to suffice.

June June leaves to cherish his memory: his best friend and mother, Elsie Byrd; brothers, Howard Byrd and Melvin Lyle; sisters, Shirley Byrd-Butler, Cheryl Byrd and Natalie Byrd-Pompey; and one brother-in-law, Tyrone Pompey; dedicated uncle, Wilbert Lyle; and aunt, Elizabeth Williams; many loving nieces and nephews and a host of other relatives.

“ I happened upon this notice and my heart goes out to the immediate and extended family members. I want to convey my sympathy and share with you the thought from the Bible that I look to, at times such as these. Our heavenly Father Jehovah is a God of love and He hates to see us in pain. This thought is supported at Revelation 21:3,4 where it promises that God will do away with death and pain forever. Oh what a joyous time this will be for all who inherit God's new kingdom.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
