“ *Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss of dear Nathaniel. May you draw much comfort in the wonderful and real promises found contained in Gods' Word The Bible. Most of us find the death of a loved one painful and too difficult to comprehend. You see, that's because death was never in Gods' original purpose.(Genesis 1:8). The Bible explains the terrible chain of events that cause all of us to eventually die. Our Creator has put a remedy in place (1 Corinthians 15:26). Jesus also died but was brought back to glorious life. John 5:28-29 quotes Him in part,....."Do not be amazed at this, the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear His voice and come out". His own Resurrection paved the way for dear Nathaniel, and the rest of humankind to be reunited right here, on a paradise earth, where no one will say " I am sick (Isaiah 33:24, Psalms 37:9-11,29 and Rev. 21:4). There are eight other documented cases of persons being resurrected. These are recorded in the Bible for our examination. John 11:11-38 and 2 Kings 4:35-42 are some of these. May those reliable accounts of truth hold you tightly, and sooth some of the heartache you must surely feel, until that approaching day. Sincerely, Mrs. D.
