“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ I send my sincere sympathy to the family. The death of a valued member of a family is like tearing out a piece of your heart. Nothing can completely mend it again until we're reunited with that loved one again. That is God's lofty purpose to resurrect the dead who are in his memory, and bringing them back into our arms. John 5:26-29. If we exercise faith in the ransom price Jesus paid to buy us out of sin and death then we will see our loved ones come to life again. At John 11:25 Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life." "He who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life."###imported-begin##R Johnson###imported-end##

“ Hello ! William's! I hope you all are enduring with the passing of time. Life is not fair to have your circle of life broken after 84 years. The time is coming when no one will ever die again, great news for mankind. Our heavenly father cares for you all as 1 Peter 5:7 say. May the future keep looking bright for you all as the journey of life keep moving forward.##imported-begin##L.C##imported-end##
