

Nathaniel Lewis Hunt, III

December 6, 1981 - March 8, 2016

On Tuesday, March 8, 2016, Nathaniel Lewis Hunt, III transitioned to be with our heavenly Father. He was surrounded by family and friends during his short time of hospitalization. "Nate" as we all knew him was born December 6, 1981 in Hampton, Virginia to Brenda Fields Hunt and the late Nathaniel "Buddy" Hunt, Jr., welcomed by his sister Kecia Hunt.

At an early age, he joined Mt. Olive Baptist Church where he sang in the children's choir "The Olive Branches." Nate was educated in the Henrico County Public School System where he graduated from Henrico High School. He furthered his education at St. Paul's College.

He was presently employed by Driveline Retail Merchandising as a merchandiser. Prior to that Nate was employed at Genworth Financial as a dedicated employee.

Nate was well loved by everyone and always went out of his way to help others. He has touched many people and the memory of his smile, laugh will live on in the hearts of everyone who knew him.

Those left to rejoice in his memory are his loving mother, Brenda F. Hunt; devoted sister, Kecia L. Hunt; two half-siblings, Nathaniel Hale and Simone Waller-Stith; uncle, Kermit (Linette) Fields, Sr.; aunts, Deborah H. Parish and Betty Hunt; cousins, Kermit (Dale) Fields, Jr., Kareem Fields, Delores (Raymond) Quash, Simone Quash and Robin (Julian) Cook; a host of other relatives and caring friends.

Heaven

I have found a place where I can be free

I have found a whole new beginning just for me

I know only peace and I never feel pain

Days are full of sunshine and never the rain.
