

Nathaniel Hunter

October 5, 1957 - September 20, 2019

Nathaniel Hunter, Sr., 61, of Baltimore, Maryland, was born on October 5, 1957 in Union County, South Carolina to Joe Hunter and Beatrice Browning. He died September 20, 2019 at the University of Maryland Medical Center.

Nathan attended Walbrook High School in Baltimore, Maryland and continued his education at Morgan State University, where he completed two years of study in Business-Accounting. There he met his first wife, Luella D. Hunter, who preceded him in death. He was later remarried to his second wife, Bernadette Tanyzmore.

Nathan was an astute businessman and entrepreneur, working tirelessly to rebuild working class residential communities in the Baltimore City area through his property management businesses.

Nathan had a passion for music, sports, and fitness activities (especially skating and biking), and cherished spending time with his family and close friends.

Nathan was preceded in death by his four brothers, Billy, Tommy, Todd, and Thadges.

Nathan is survived by his four children, Kimberly (spouse Kevin), Nathaniel

(spouse Shayna), McKenzy (spouse Kindra), and Natalie; three grandchildren, Kierra, Kory, and Amir; his great grandchild, Kendrix; his two brothers, Larry and John; and numerous cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I remember Nate so very well we used to roller skate together all over town we even went all the way to Atlanta to a national skate party and had a ball * He even made us skaters some health juice to drink I didn't like it lol lol ** it was good for us * I like Nate but I did not like that Juice lol * He took good care of him self Nate he was own man such a honest person and smart as could be* He Loved his children more than anything He was so proud of them He would say he was blessed with how well they turned out in Life * he loved his race and respected all races * I would always call him for some advice, I sure will miss him. The skate community surly will miss him flying around the rink and stopping on a dime if need be. The skate community is a family on the wood. RIP MY BROTHER RIP SURE GLAD YOU WERE MY FRIEND. YOU WILL NEVER DIE BECAUSE YOUR MEMORY LIVES ON . !!!!

“ Farewell my friend and skating buddy. You rarely missed a Thursday nite at Shake n Bake. Thanks for the memories my couples partner a few years back. A real family man that loved his children spending time outdoors bike riding. May my Lord and savior welcome you home.
