

Nathaniel Hurt

January 17, 1933 - June 29, 2018

NATHANIEL HURT was born on January 17, 1933. He was the son of the late Alford Hurt and Helen Mickey Hurt. Nathaniel was educated in the Baltimore City Public School system.

He started working at an early age at Bethlehem Steel in Baltimore, Maryland and later joined the United States Air Force, where he served his country for four years on active duty. Before leaving for the Air Force, Nathaniel Hurt married his childhood sweetheart Rosie (Wetherbee) Hurt and three children were born from this union. After returning from the military Nathaniel returned to work at Bethlehem Steel for over 40 years until he retired.

Nathaniel was known for his charm, fashionable attire and work ethic. He loved to have fun. He spent his leisure time with friends at the local clubs and loved listening to jazz and attending local jazz shows. He was known affectionately by many as the "Snowball Man," a nickname given to him because he ran a local snowball stand in Baltimore for over 20 years.

Nathaniel now joins his wife, daughter, mother and father in heaven.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his six sons, Leroy N. (Valerie) Hurt, Anthony (Annette) Hurt, Eric (Tracy) Hurt, Nathaniel G.

Hurt, Charles Hurt, and David Hurt; three daughters, Veronica Sellers, Tami Hurt, Linda Hurt; three sisters, Doris Weatherbee, Malinda Harris, Carolyn Dorsey; brother in-law Harrison Gross; special friend Paula Jeffers; and a host of grand and great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
