

Nathaniel Jackson

March 6, 1938 - December 18, 2012

Nathaniel Jackson, son of the late Vanice and Matilda Jackson was born on March 6, 1938 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on December 18, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

He received his education in the Baltimore City School Systems. Nathaniel worked at Koppers/ Kaydon manufacturing company until his early retirement in 1994.

He received Christ at an early age at John Wesley Methodist Church in South Baltimore. He later became a member of Saint Matthews Catholic Church.

Nathaniel married the former Delores Walker in 1956 and out of this union one child was born, Michael.

Nathaniel was a dedicated husband and father, a loyal friend and a passionate family man and neighbor. He enjoyed planting flowers and mowing the lawns of his neighbors. Nathaniel loved jazz; he was a member of the Drum and Bugle Core at Saint Monica's Catholic Church. He loved sports, especially the Pittsburgh Steelers. He positively influenced the lives of many young men that he mentored in the neighborhood and coached on Loch Raven's Little League Baseball Youth Club.

He leaves to mourn: his dedicated wife Delores Jackson; son, Michael N. Jackson; daughter-in law, Brie A. Jackson, two sisters; Odessa Spence and Carrie Jordan (sisters Elizabeth Day and Bessie Smith preceded him in death); one brother, William Jackson, granddaughters; Cameron, Jade, Peyote and Ryan, mother-in-law; Corine Sanders, nieces, Nephews and a host of other relatives and friends and one devoted friend, Rudolph Williams.
