“ You will truly be missed B. A lifetime of memories from childhood, to my debutante ball to last Thanksgiving... It wasn't a time that we saw each other that I didn't hear you say "What's up Cuz?" in surround sound (smile).

I know you are overjoyed to be reunited with your Mom, Khali, Big Ma, Popsie & your favorite Aunt Dot.

Special Love to Trey, Tony & Charles. Prayers of strength...we are family, not matter how far or near the Love is the same. Grace & Peace, S. "Niki" Johnson

“ From his Garland Avenue family, he was known as Vinyah and B. He was our neighborhood watch man, a listening ear to all who sat on his porch. His porch swing his empty now, but we know he is still swinging in heaven with the rest of our Angels. We love you Mr. Vinyah. The whole Thompson family, Cee Cee, Otis, Sarah and the entire block of Garland Ave.
