“ *Dadd you were called home to be with god. Now i understand how you felt when grandma was called home my heart shattered. In time and with gods help my heart will heal. I know i did you proud, because like you used to tell me if you we're not pleased you would let me know. God called you for a task by giving you your talents and i know that you made him proud by multiplying your talents. I know that you will here the words : well done my true and faithful servant. The journey that i must take in your memory i will do you proud. You touched many peoples lives through out your journey here on earth, i heard nothing but good compliments about how you touched peoples lives. I will miss you and i love you. R. I. P. Big Brother, my life is less bright with you not in it... as my tears flow I know you are not in pain anymore but it doesn't ease my pain... I wish God has something to help my breaking heart now... I also know that Gods blessing will help me through this... now I have to let go & "know that he is God"... as I saw you in your final hours of your earthly life & saw your pain... I know God did what was best, there is no more pain & he sent Mother to bring you to your "new home in heaven"... as John 14:2 & 3 states: In God house, he has many mansions & "Jesus has prepares a place for you". At the very beginning of John 14:1 God states Let not your heart be troubled... so "I must believe & trust in his words"... rest in peace Jr.
