

Nathaniel Lance

August 19, 1942 - January 30, 2010

NATHANIEL LANCE, son of the late Saulters and Daisy Lance, was born on August 19, 1942 in Georgetown, South Carolina. On January 30, 2010 the Lord picked him up, laid him on his heavenly cloud, and drove him home to glory. He was respectfully known to family and friends as Nat, Na or Sugarpop. Nat received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools. He also attended trade school majoring in tailoring and clothes design. After graduating from school, he was employed at Amoco Steel for several years, then went on to Value Food for over thirty years as a meat cutter. He then worked at Mars until he became ill. He was a dedicated worker and a family man. As long as he had his newspaper, scratch offs, remote and a pepsi, he was good. Nathaniel leaves to mourn: two daughters, Shelia Lance-Melvin and Alre Brooks; sister, Glorius Lance-Smith; brother, Fletcher Lance (who preceded him in death); five sons, Kevin, Tony, Keith, Clenard and Tawon; two grandsons, Donte and Dominick; son-in-law, Levan Melvin; wife, Rosa Lee Lance; long time companion for over thirty years, Brenda Brooks; three daughters-in-law, and a host of family and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Nathaniel Lance

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Our condolence goes out to the family. As a first cousin of Nathaniel, we never did met but I have heard of him, his sister I've met. but never met his brother Fletcher either. I pray that I get to know the family he left behind. And that GOD give the comfort you all need to get through these trying times. Nat mother (aunt Daisy) is the sister to my mother (Frances) which makes us first cousin.may God bless our families as we go forward.##imported-begin##Jimmie &Rosa Geathers##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Nathaniel Lance. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from the "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to express my condolences on the recent passing of your loved one. Death is something we never get accustomed to, because it brings so much pain to our hearts. It was never God's purpose for us to die, and he promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. 1st Corinthians 15:26. One day all who have fallen to sleep in death will wake up. Daniel 12:2 tells us: "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up. Can you imagine seeing your loved one alive and well again. This is no mere fantasy, because whatever God promises always comes true. Isaiah 55:11. We can also put all of our faith and trust in his promises, because truly the living God, Jehovah, cannot lie. May the promised resurrection be a source of comfort to your family in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM