

Nathaniel S. Ebron

March 9, 1948 - August 10, 2004

On August 10, 2004, God sent His special angels down to earth to get His child and bring him home. Nathaniel, (Chew-Chew) as he was fondly called, was the son of the late John and Mary Elizabeth Ebron. He was born on March 9, 1948 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was baptized in his family's church, Mt. Calvary Free Will Baptist Church, where he accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at a very early age. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. As an adolescent he was a member of the East Baltimore Cadet Unit #1832. At age seventeen he joined the National Guard of Maryland where he served from 1965-1971. He had many jobs in his lifetime; to name a few, FMC Chemical, BG&E, Sparrows Point and with several different cleaning companies. The last part of his life he did not work because of his lengthy illness. Chew-Chew was a very nice, honest, spiritual and humble human being. He kept a smile on his face and always respected everybody he came in contact with. Whenever he would see his family and friends he always made you feel that he was glad to see you. He loved music, especially Eddie Kendricks of the Temptations, whom he could sing just like. He used to play tennis; he got a trophy for winning in a tournament; Billy Jean King was his favorite. His favorite movie star was Sophia Loren. Whenever he saw her on TV he would holler out and say, "Lord, that's a good looking woman!" Rest in Peace, Chew-Chew. We won't say goodbye, just goodnight. He leaves to cherish his memory: two children, Nathaniel S. Ebron Jr. and Tracy Moseley; grandson, Nathaniel Parris Moseley; two sisters and two brothers-in-law, Martha and Cornelius Darden of Fort Washington, MD. and Anna Lee and James Lattimore of Baltimore, Md.; stepmother, Annie Mae Ebron; stepbrother, Sabastian Clark; four nieces, six nephews (Stevens deceased), nine great-nephews and four great-nieces and one great-great-nephews; a life long friend, Maxine M. Cox; other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Nathaniel S. Ebron

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Nathaniel S. Ebron

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the Ebron Family, My condolences on the loss of your loved one. At times like this the inspired scriptures are of much comfort. Please read John 5:28,29 and find comfort that your loved one will rise again.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM