

Natshawn Roell Charity

January 25, 1999 - November 9, 2025

Natshawn Roell Charity, 26, passed away on November 9, 2025. A gifted musician and beloved son, Natshawn filled every space he entered with kindness, joy, and music.

Born with a natural love for sound, he began his musical studies at Fairfield Middle School and continued developing his talent through his years at Highland Springs High School, where he played tenor sax, trumpet, bass, and participated in multiple school ensembles. His passion led him to Norfolk State University, where he earned his Bachelor's degree in 2021 and Master's degree in 2023. Natshawn later performed with the RaJazz Band and helped coordinate the NSU Band, sharing his gift with excellence and humility.

He is remembered for his generous heart, bright smile, and deep love for his family. Natshawn was preceded in death by several beloved relatives. He leaves to cherish his memory his parents William "Nat" and Sandra Charity; step-parents Delores and Clyde Hyde; stepbrother Lamond Hyde; grandmother Helen Charity; and a host of devoted aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family, and friends.

“ I was Natshawn's School Counselor at Highland Springs High School and have nothing but the best memories of Natshawn and our interactions. His dedication and passion for band and music was unmatched, and I'm truly sadden to learn of his passing. Thank you Natshawn for your inner beauty, thoughtfulness, and being a great kid at Highland Springs. My thoughts are with your family and friends.

“ To the family of my brother Natshawn- my sincerest prayers and condolences are with you. Natshawn certainly a little big brother due to connections with the band and our fraternities. Watching him grow as a freshman to a fellow band staff member was nothing but great. He was wise beyond his years and a true light in this world. He will be missed wholeheartedly.
