

Neal Black

August 14, 1917 - January 14, 2002

Neal Black, the son of the late Neal Black and the late Dolly Alexandra, was born on August 15, 1917, in Matthews, North Carolina. He departed this life on January 14, 2002, after a lengthy illness. He attended public school in North Carolina. He migrated to Baltimore at an early age. He was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company at one time. He worked at the Crown Construction Company until retirement. As a construction worker, one of the projects he worked on was Saint Agnes Hospital. He was a member of Herbert Chapel Methodist Church in Fairfield, Maryland, under the leadership of the Reverend Leon Cass. He married the former Lossie Bell Baker on October 24, 1948, and out of this union four children were born, Linda, Beverly, Deborah and Rosalind. He leaves to mourn; his estranged wife, Lossie Bell Black; four daughters, Linda Kay Smith, Beverly Laverne Black, Deborah Charlene Thomas and Rosalind Veronica Black; one stepdaughter, Helen Ruth Davis; seven grandchildren, Charles, Minette, Jerel, Tony, Theresa, Wanda and Gina; twelve great-grandchildren; one brother-in-law, John Baker of N.C.; four sisters-in-law, Katie Barrett, Ella Ruth Baker, Imogene Baker of N.C. and Lovie Baker of Baltimore, Maryland; and a host of nieces and nephews. Neal made numerous friends wherever he went, and one lifelong friend Sydney Brodie. He will be missed by all.
