“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. I pray that our loving heavenly father gives you the comfort that you need. Death brings a sadness to our hearts that's so very hard to bear, and the pain cuts so deeply. Jehovah God and his son Jesus care deeply about what the human race is suffering through, and Jehovah's purpose is to put an end to all violence, sickness, and other tragedies that cause us so much grief. Isaiah 25:8 lets us know that even death will be swallowed up forever". May it comfort you to know that one day a ressurection of the dead will occur, and all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.
