

Neil C. Landon

March 9, 1923 - May 15, 2006

NEIL C. LANDON, son of Arthur and Mary Landon, was born on March 9, 1923 and departed on May 15, 2006. He received his education in the Baltimore public schools. He served in the United States Armed Forces and after he was discharged, made his home in El Paso, Texas, married and stayed. He later returned to Baltimore where he remained until his death. He was very nice and easy to get along with. He spent his last years in a nursing home until he died in the hospital. He leaves behind two sisters, a niece, two nephews and three great-nephews. He will be missed and will be remembered.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family, my deepest condolences. The bible has words of comfort. At 1Corinthians 15:26 it states,"As the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing. God has promise to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May the family find comfort in these words.##imported-begin##Albert Washington##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family and friends. The Bible is a source of comfort and encouragement at such times. Acts 24:15 helps us to appreciate that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. Jesus promises to resurrect all in his father's memory in the near future to live in peaceful conditions. May you find comfort and strength in Jesus' promises.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
