

Nellie Mae Jackson

May 14, 1920 - June 10, 2012

Nellie Mae Jackson, the daughter of the late Thad and Rosetta Hawkes was born May 14, 1920 in Dinwiddie County, Virginia. She was preceded in death by five brothers, Robert, James Edward, Ernest and Arthur.

Mother Jackson was granted her angel wings and was called home to be with the Lord, June 10, 2012.

She attended the Church of God in Christ in Richmond, Virginia for many years. Later, she was baptized and filled with the Holy Ghost at Refuge Church in Sandston, Virginia. She served as a Missionary, and on the Flower Committee. She was also an honored mother.

Mother Jackson was very hardworking and dedicated to whatever task she undertook. She was a born leader, had an independent spirit and was a woman of strength. She loved being with her family, having fun with friends and going to church. Throughout her lifetime she touched many family and friends lives in some small way. She had a great smile, and loved having her grandchildren come by to visit. With the many family members she had, there was always something to do and someplace to go.

Because of her wonderful love, she will never be forgotten and will always be in our hearts. We are so fortunate to have had her in our lives and we feel empty without her.

Mother Jackson will forever be remembered by her five caring sons, Joseph Timberlake, Henry Watson (Bernice), Tommie Jackson (Sarah), Arthur P. Jackson Jr. and Isaac Jackson; two daughters, Rosa Collins (Alphonso) and Evelyn Bryant; one sister, Gladys Victoria Crump; seventeen grandchildren, eighteen great grandchildren; two great-great grandchildren; a devoted niece, Edith Harris, a host of nieces, nephews, two close friends, Gladys Cottman and Lila Jones; along with countless other family and friends whom were blessed to have known her.

“ I am so sorry for your lost. Losing a loved one is never easy. How comforting it is to know that Jehovah God has provided a promise for us all. The promise is found at Revelation 21:4, it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Yes Jehovah promises to do away with all the suffering we face today, how loving and comforting it is to know that.
