

Nellie Mae Williams

November 17, 1915 - July 20, 2006

On July 20, 2006, NELLIE WILLIAMS departed this life to rest eternally. Nellie Mae Brown was the daughter of the late Lemmie Lee Brown and Emma Butler. She was born on November 18, 1915 in Blakely, Georgia. Nellie spent her early life and school years in Blakely, Ga. and later moved to Coolidge, Ga. There, she met and married the late Willie Williams (Big Boy). In 1940, they moved to Baltimore, Md. Once moving here, Nellie worked at various jobs. Her last employment was driving a school bus for the Anne Arundel County school system. She would often tell funny stories about being a school bus driver. Nellie and Big Boy adopted and reared Johnnie Williams, who preceded her in death in 2004, and his sister Viola Anderson Jones. In later years, Nellie opened her home up to rearing foster children. She was a foster mother to Nathaniel, Booker T., Ray, Leo and several more children. She was very proud of being a foster care mother and received several awards of recognition of her dedication to the foster care program. Once moving to Glen Burnie, Nellie enjoyed the suburban life of sitting out on her patio, eating crabs and watermelon, and taking care of her beautiful flower garden. She also joined the John Wesley United Methodist Church. She is survived by: two nephews, Joseph Brown (Harriet) and Charles Brown (Gwendolyn); three nieces, Dora Tapp, Barbara Cherry and Elaine Brown; a devoted foster daughter, Viola Jones (Reed); a devoted adopted grandson, Desmond Hesson; twelve great-nieces and -nephews, twenty-five great-great-nieces and -nephews, four great-great-great-nieces and -nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
