She made friends in New York wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. Although she was not blessed with children, Nellie loved to travel she travel to different countries. If somebody told her about a trip somewhere, she was always ready to go- her bags stayed packed. “ It is so truly devastaing when we lose someone we love to our enemy death. You have my sincere condolences. Although people have been dying since the beginning, nevertheless, this was not God's original purpose for mankind. he desires all obedient people to live forever in peace and security. That purpose will be fulfilled by the ransom sacrifice of our Lord, Jesus Christ. John 3,16 says, For God loved the world so much, that he gave his only-begotten son; so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life. One day all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, according to John 5,28,29. Please be comforted in the promise that one day your loved one will open her eyes again. May your cherished memories of her help you to cope with her loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry about the death of Nellie. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrew 9:27 says..It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
