

Nellie Ruth Bunch

March 1, 1929 - October 25, 2009

NELLIE RUTH BUNCH, daughter of the late Daniel and Eva Battle, was born March 1, 1929 in Wilson County, NC. She was called to rest by her Savior on October 25, 2009 after a lengthy illness. She grew up loving the Lord in Sharpsburg, NC where she graduated Valedictorian of her class from Frederick Douglass High School. She fell in love with Willie Maryland and had her first child Bernard Battle. Later in life, she met and united in Holy Matrimony with Pugh C. Bunch, Jr. on November 27, 1953. They married in Bennettsville, S.C. and moved to Baltimore, MD, seeking better opportunities for their life. She studied hard and became a nurse at Baltimore City Hospital in 1961 working for 30 years, serving on the Cancer floor to the Operating Room. She retired November, 1991. While enjoying her retirement, she traveled to Hawaii, Jamaica, Florida, Mexico, the Caribbean Islands but her favorite spot to frequent was Las Vegas. She enjoyed going to the movies, seeing plays (anything Tyler Perry) and of course she enjoyed attending church. She sang on the choir at Charity Baptist for several years before joining Little Ark Missionary Baptist Church under the fine leadership of Reverend Matthew Marcus, Sr. After many years under the leadership of Reverend Marcus, he passed the torch to Pastor J.L. Carter who is the shepherd of the flock today. She joined and served faithfully on the Pastor's Aid and Silver and Gold Ministries. She served her church well and showed her love and kindness to everyone. Nellie leaves to mourn: three sons, Bernard Battle of Washington, D.C., Darrell W. Bunch of Baltimore, MD and

Daniel W. Bunch of Fresno, CA; one beautiful daughter, Sharon E. Bunch of Baltimore, MD (four brothers preceded her in death). “ To The Bunch Family: I wish to express my condolence for the loss of your love one. During times like these, hearts are filled with grief and pain. However, please find comfort in Jehovah God's promise found in the Bible at Revelation chapter 21, verse 4. It reads: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May God comfort you during these difficult times.##imported-begin##P Land##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy to the Bunch family. The loss of your loved ones can be very painful and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 confirms the resurrection hope for us stating: "Many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May you find comfort and strength in your cherished memories and in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.###imported-begin##Valerie Johnson###imported-end##
