

Nervia Drye

March 15, 1925 - January 24, 2017

Nervia Drye, daughter of the late John and Eva McCluney, was born on March 15, 1925 in Chester, South Carolina. She fell asleep in death on January 24, 2017 after a lengthy illness.

She left Chester and moved to Baltimore, MD where she met and married Stephenson R. Drye. They remained married until his death.

She began to study the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses and was baptized in 1960. She became a regular pioneer in 1995 and served Jehovah in this capacity until her illness. She spent many hours speaking to all who would listen about the hope the Bible holds out for all. She firmly believed in the resurrection and looked forward to seeing deceased family and friends in the future.

Nervia made numerous friends anywhere she went and will be sincerely missed by all who knew her.

Now safe in Jehovah's memory we eagerly await the time we welcome her back to the paradise earth as promised by Jehovah God.

She was preceded in death by her two daughters, Daisy M. Burney of

Spartanburg, SC, and Helen Brooks of Baltimore, MD. She was also preceded in death by her siblings Johnny McCluney and Corene Pendergrass of Chester, SC. She is survived by her grandchildren: Mitchell (Eva) Burney of Charleston, SC, Joy (Robert) Drummond of Taylors, SC, Terri (Dennis) Wheeler of Spartanburg, SC, Ray (Tanya) Burney of Duncan, SC, Jeffrey (Rejeaner) Burney of Boiling Springs, SC, Jason (Quinta) Burney of Spartanburg, SC, Joshua Jenkins of Baltimore, MD, Phillip (Dyah) Burney of Roebuck, SC, and Brandy and Justin Burney of Spartanburg, SC. She also leaves a host of great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews and dear friends
