

Nettie R. Giddins

July 1, 1942 - March 19, 2020

Nettie Rose Giddins, daughter of the late Nathiel Morgan and Plummie Knox Morgan, was born on July 1, 1942, in Baltimore Maryland.

Nettie Giddins, attended and received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System.

Nettie Giddins, was united in holy matrimony to Jerry Wilson Giddins, and this union was blessed with five children.

After working several jobs in housekeeping, cooking and dog grooming, Nettie Giddins began her career at Social Security Administration, where she was one of the first blacks to be hired. After thirty-one years of service she retired.

Nettie Giddins was the baby girl of six siblings. She enjoyed sewing, hair styling, cooking and working hard to provide for her five children. Her hobbies included spending time with family and friends, playing cards, watching T.V. (Perry Mason, Murder She Wrote and Gospel shows) and listening to gospel music. Nettie's house was the house that everyone loved to be at.

Nettie Giddins leaves to cherish her memories: three children, Bernetta Clayborn, Jerry Giddins and Michelle Curbeam; sister, Catherine Brooks; favorite niece, Cynthia Brooks; son-in-law, Emmanuel Clayborn; seventeen grandchildren, twenty-seven great-grandchildren and a host of family and friends. She was preceded in death, by two children, Sandra and Stanley Giddins; sisters, Beatrice, Mary, Mildred, Lorraine and her brother, Sonny.
