

Nettie Johnson

August 17, 1933 - August 9, 2004

Nettie R. Johnson was born August 17, 1933 in Conway, North Carolina to Minnie and Ernest Bottom. Raised to love God, Nettie joined Zoar Missionary Baptist Church at an early age. She received her education at the Willis Hare High School in Pendelton, North Carolina. After moving to Baltimore she received her nursing certification from Henderson Nursing School in 1962. Nettie met and later married Henry Johnson (deceased) in 1958. From this loving union they had one daughter, Sharon Johnson who preceded them in death. For forty-five years, Nettie was employed by Sinai Hospital, where she retired as a nurse's advocate in the Employee's Help division of the hospital. She also received numerous awards for nursing and employee service. Nettie was loyal, dependable and caring, a friend to all. In 1964, Nettie joined Mt. Lebanon Church, where she was a member and past President of the Senior Usher Ministry for more than forty years. She was also a member of the Pastor's Wife Aid Ministry, the ICUA (Interdenominational Church Ushers Association) and the Eastern Star. To love was something that Nettie knew how to do and do well. She loved her family, she loved her friends, and her job. And way up on her list was her pastors, Rev. Olin P. Moyd, Rev. Denson and Rev. Lance. She cherished the times with her comrades, The Golden Girls, Marie Hicks, Ernestine Hardy, Sallie Chapman and others. She leaves to cherish and keep her memory: two sisters, Marie Branch and Pearlene Warren; brother, Samuel Bottom; sisters-in-law, Brenda Bottom, Sally Johnson and Rose Bottom; brothers-in-law, Jack Branch, Andrew

Johnson and Vernon Warren; god-children, Linda McCullough, Kia Watson, Regina Booth, Wallis Robinson, David Lance and Charles Lucas, Jr.; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, the Zoar Church family and friends.

“ *I'VE GOT A MANSION I'm satisfied with just a cottage below A little silver and a little gold But in that city where the ransomed will shine I want a gold one that's silver lined I've got a mansion just over the hill top In that bright land where we'll never grow old And some day yonder we will never more wander But walk the streets that are purest gold Tho' often tempted...tormented...and tested And like the prophet my pillow a stone And tho' I find here no permanent dwelling I know He'll give me a mansion my own I've got a mansion...just over the hill top In that bright land where we'll never grow old And some day yonder we will never more wander But walk the streets that are purest gold Don't think me poor or deserted or lonely I'm not discouraged.....I'm heaven bound I'm just a pilgrim in search of a city I want a mansion...a harp...and a crown I've got a mansion just over the hill top In that bright land where we'll never grow old And some day yonder we will never more wander But walk the streets that are purest gold###imported-begin##Cynthia R. “ How good it is to know that God provides. He provides us with family and friends, people to love and those who will love us. I've been bless to have parents that loved me, a family that loves me and friends that love me. Nettie Johnson loved me, how do I know because she told me, often. Alexis, CJ and myself will always remember her smile and laugh, her words of wisdom and her unconditional love. CJ wanted you to know that he knows everything is alright because you're with Henry. To Pearlene and Sammy and Bea we love you and cherish your friendship.##imported-begin##Shelly Rawles Harris & Family##imported-end##

“ My condolences to you and your family. Life has a beginning and an end. The beginning is called "birth" and the end is called "eternal rest", but what matters the most is what you've accomplished in between that counts. Nettie loved the Lord so much she was in his temple when he called her home. What a marvelous GOD she served. God Bless!##imported-begin##Darlene Rogers##imported-end##

“ Please accept my belated condolences for your loss. First Corinthians 15:26 calls death our enemy, it also says that death will be done away with. Acts 24:15 promises- "There is going to be a resurrection." May these divinely inspired promises give you much comfort and hope.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
