“ HELLO! Jones! I would like to take this time to send my condolences to you all. Nia was full of vitality and fun. Life has so much to offer, and Nia used her. The time is coming when no one will ever die again so say the bible at Isa.25:8, death will be swallow up forever, great news indeed to know. I am looking forward to that time too because I too know the feeling of losing someone in death. May the comfort from our heavenly help to strenght the resurrection hope. My sincere sympathy, lillan.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolences to your family for your loss. I know your hearts are heavy, because the death of a loved one is so painful. May it comfort you to know that others care, and may you receive the greatest comfort from the father of tender mercies, who carries our pain in his heart. One day, he promises to end all sorrow pain and death, and bring about a peaceful new world. 2ndPeter 3:13, Rev.21:3-5. In that new world, gone will be violence, sickness, and death in all it's forms. The dead will be brought back to life to be with their loved ones again. The Apostle Paul wrote at Acts 24:15, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection." One day no more tears of saddness, but tears of joy when we are reunited with our loved ones again in peaceful conditions. Then when we pray, "Thy will be done on earth, just as it is in heaven; we will be able to see the fullfillment of that prayer. Please find comfort in God's word, as well as in the memories of your loved one.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family, Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's Word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful provision further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
