“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sincere condolence for the lost of your family member/and or friend. Death is not something that we get use to. It often helps when others comfort us when someone dear falls asleep in death. The greatest comforter is Jehovah. Romans 15:4 lets us know that he (Jehovah) gives us comfort through the scriptures, as well as hope for the future. Such hope as found at Acts 24:15, which tells us of a resurrection of righteous and unrighteous. I have received comfort from these scriptures, hoping you also receive comfort from these scriptures.
Sincerely, O. Crosby##imported-begin##O. Crosby##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. Death is so heartbreaking for the loved ones left behind, and no matter how many we lose we never get used to it. One day the God of all comfort, Jehovah God through his son Jesus; will bring about an end to sickness and death forever. He promises in his word the bible that, "No resident will say, "I am sick." Isaiah 33,24. and He also promises to swallow up death forever. Isaiah 25,8. Then the dead will be raised up according to Daniel 12,2 which says; "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of the dust who will wake up. May Jehovah God continue to comfort you in your pain, and may his wonderful promise of a resurrection help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
