

Nickalas D. Morrisey

June 11, 1990 - July 27, 2013

NICKALAS DWAYNE MORRISEY was born on June 11, 1990 to the proud parents of Dwight Morrisey (deceased) and Hope Lee-Morrisey in Baltimore, Maryland.

Nickalas received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. After his graduation, Nickalas worked in the food service industry and was seeking additional education prior to his untimely passing.

As a child he was always busy and curious and his mom could always be heard saying “Nick Stop.” Remembering him as a young child and his difficulties with sleep overs brings smiles to his aunt's faces. It began with a look on his face at bed time, and then came the words, “I want my mommy.” He could only be calmed by talking to his mom. We look back and recall that no matter how many times he would spend the night it was the same routine. He loved his mom.

During his grade school years he enjoyed baseball and other sports.

In his early adulthood, Nickalas enjoyed spending time with his mom, Hope; his two brothers, Jeremy and Dwight Jr.; his nephew, Nathaniel; his two nieces, Damaris and Razira and his girlfriend, LaTonia. He loved children and was always willing to watch his nieces and nephew who lovingly called him

“Uncle Nick.” He enjoyed playing cards with his girlfriend as they talked and laughed throughout the evening. Nickalas had a joke for everything and kept you laughing. He enjoyed football and his favorite team was the Ravens. He also spent his spare time playing video games with his friends and listening to music. He enjoyed writing both rap and traditional poetry about how he felt.

Nickalas was intelligent, thoughtful, kind, and loving with a giving heart. His smile warmed the hearts of all those that came in contact with him. He left this life much too soon and we will miss him deeply.

Nickalas was preceded in death by: his father, Dwight Morrissey; his grandparents, Sylvester and Eugenia Morrissey; and his great-grandmother, Rebecca Anderson. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Hope Lee-Morrissey; his stepfather, Boh Jackson; his grandmother, Gloria B. Lee; his grandfather and step-grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Fred and Ruthie Lee; two brothers, Jeremy Lee and Dwight Morrissey Jr.; six aunts, Monique Morrissey, Michelle Morrissey, Yvette Lee, Diane Lee-McGowan, Joy Johnson and Kim Smith; five uncles, Steve Lee, Robert Morrissey, Anthony McGowan, Craig Johnson and Rodney L. Smith; one nephew, Nathaniel Turner; two nieces, Damaris Morrissey and Razira Morrissey; a host of great-aunts, cousins and his devoted girlfriend of many years, LaTonia Comegys.

“ Please accept my deepest condolences and sorrow for the loss of your dear Nikalas. The death of a loved one can be very painful and almost too difficult to comprehend. May your family draw much comfort in the wonderful promises found in Gods' Word. .. You see death is unnatural. It was never supposed to be this way. That is why our loving Creator calls death an "enemy", one that will "swallowed up" or finally eliminated forever (Isaiah 25:8). Jesus himself tells us at John 5:28,29 ".....Do not marvel at this.....all those in the memorial tombs will come out". His Father Jehovah God promises to bring back to life our dead loved ones in the resurrection to here on earth in the very near future(Psalms 37:10,11, and 29, and Revelation 21:3,4). This means young Mr Nikalas. has a real hope. Please don't think this is just a dream. God will do this just like the nine documented cases he had recorded for us in the Bible. May these scriptures strengthen you, and bring a salve to your broken hearts. Isaiah 55:11.
