

Nicole Alexandria Cade

October 17, 1980 - January 13, 2009

My beginning was October 17, 1980. It really does not matter where I was educated or what type of job I had. It doesn't even matter what civic duties I performed or sports I played. What does matter is that I existed. When I first learned that cancer would be my demise I Began to live. That's when I began writing out my "Bucket List". For those of you who do not know what a "Bucket List" is let me explain. It's a list of things you want to do before you "kick the bucket". Did I complete my list? Yes, I did! Most importantly I manage to achieve something that was lost with my family. I bought us back together. Ever since my pop pop crossed over my family had lost the glue that held us together. I wanted to get it back. This was the most important thing on my list. I began letting this cancer thing work for me in a positive way. The cancer card is the only credit card that will not be declined. So whatever I wanted I knew my family would do it. I know they felt sorry for me, at times I even felt sorry for myself. After a while my Mom caught on and she was the only one who would decline my card. That didn't stop me from using it though. I leave my family with this message. The most beautiful thing about God is that the more I needed him the closer he was. That's how I know he is especially close to you now. " So, hold on to my hand even when I have gone from you, because I can no longer ignore death". Luv, Nicki She leaves to cherish her memory: A loving mother, Yasmin Mello, her loving father, Mark Mello and father, Alexander Cade, sister Ashley Mello, brother Austin Mello, Nana Clustie Ford, aunts Paulette, Fay, LaTanya, Corliss, Diane, Bonnie, Johnsie, Vonda, and Rose; uncles Harry, Jr., Andre, Darryl, Charles and Harlan;; a host of great-aunts, great-uncles, cousins, friends and best friend Brandon Smith.

Tribute Wall

“ Nicole Alexandria Cade

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the family of Nicole, even though I didn't know her this is the most beautiful obituary I have ever read. It sounds like she was a very courageous young woman.##imported-begin##Carla##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I extend my heartfelt condolences to you for the loss of Nicole. It is very heartwarming to read her personal expressions to the family. However, there is much hope for our dead loved ones such as Nicole. Acts 24:15 declares "there is going to be a resurrection". Also, the Bible promises at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that our "enemy death" is to be "destroyed". It is my hope that you experience much comfort and strength from the Bible's wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am truly sorry for your loss, may you find much comfort in calling on the God of all comfort (2Corinthians 1:3,4), may it comfort you too know that others care about your loss, we know from God's Word that soon the enemy death will be gone forever (Isaiah 25:8), hold on to that thought as you let the memories of your loved one help you to heal, my deepest sympathy is with all of you.##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ What a beautiful soul, a breath of fresh air. Please draw close to Jehovah and he will sustain you during this grievous time. Psalms 55:22###imported-begin##Nikki Farrar###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ That was a beautiful obituary and I know her family is pleased because she said it all. I never knew this young lady but that was so touching.###imported-begin##Rhonda###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the Family of Nicole Alexandria Cade, I didn't know her but this obituary is one of a kind because it comes straight from the person themselves and from the heart. It tells how the person really felt and what she accomplished that she valued very much. I have lost alot of love ones this past year so I understand how it feels to lose someone but I seem like she was loved very much.###imported-begin##Melissa###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear family and friends of Nicole, i am very sorry to hear about the lost of your loved one. Death is never an easy thing to have to go through. the bible tells of a time when death,sickness,and pain will be a thing of the past.Rev21:3,4 i hope that you may find some comfort in knowing this###imported-begin##A. Jones###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear family, I am so sorry that you lost your dear Nicole. From the comments that she wrote, she was certainly a very courageous young lady, and I'm sure she was an inspiration to all of you. I know she was to me, even though I didn't know her. One day Nicole will come to life again, because Jesus will ressurect her. She will actually hear his voice calling her, and she will come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29. Losing a loved one is so very hard to deal with, and the pain can be overwhelming at times. I know, because my son died at a very young age as well. I look forward to seeing him and many other friends and relatives who have passed on, because I put all my faith and trust in Jehovah, the God of saving acts. Truly, only he knows the ways out from death, and he has promised that we will see them again. Let his promises be a comfort and a hope for you to cling to until that glorious day of salvation arrives. Psalms 68:20##imported-begin##R
Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to express my sadness for the family of Miss Cade. I also would like to commend this young lady's parents. To hear such confidence and purpose through her words is an amazing thing. Nicole kept things simple, and real. I'm sure as others read her own words, they would be only left to ponder the type of name she's made for herself. Nicole expressed that she felt that God was there when she needed Him the most, and that is true. The True God does, and always makes himself available to mankind, only if we recognize it. What a life lesson for us. Bravo to the parents of Nicole Cade. Ecclesiastes 7:1,2 speaks about having a good name with God, and even at ones death, the value of it would be known by all. One way we can do that is by reading the bible daily. Please, why not give it a try. If you have bible questions, pray about it and I'm certain that someone will be there to answer them. Thank you for your time and attention.##imported-begin##Vernon Dennis Williams##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM