

Nicole Charles

July 29, 1980 - July 17, 2023

Early Monday morning on July 17, 2023, Nicole received her wings after living almost 43 years on this earth. She departed this life taking her flight home to glory and leaving a wonderful legacy of love and a never-ending genuine impact on all who knew her.

Nicole Charles, daughter of the late Patricia Pittman and Marvin Mayers was born on July 29, 1980 in Baltimore, Maryland. Qy' as she was affectionately known was a beautiful soul with a warm smile and caring disposition.

She is the wonderful mother of three glorious children Kailynn (Katie), Levi, and Joy; her most prized possessions. She is also the wife of a very lovingly devoted and supportive husband Ryan (Jay) Charles.

As a child, Nicole accepted Jesus Christ and was raised and baptized at Waters AME Church. She attended service every Sunday with her mother, grandmother, and brother Patrick Moore.

She received an early education in the Baltimore City Public school system and graduated high school from Forest Park. Nicole was well know for her creative personality, sense of humor, charming voice, and her love for others. During her young adult years. Nicole met the love of her life; from this union, three delightful children were born.

Nicole became employed by the State of Maryland at the Department of Labor Licensing and Regulation where she worked for 15 years. She was devoted to her career and was admired for her dependability, work ethic, calming demeanor, and professionalism. She received accolades for her loyalty and conscientious service.

Nicole was popularly known for all things beauty. Her chic sense of style was displayed in her hair, nails, and shoes. She enjoyed living life to the fullest through music, movies, and spending quality time with her loving family, and friends. She looked forward to a wholesome laugh, good conversation, and delicious meals. Nicole never complained and was grateful for each and everything that God had blessed her with.

Nicole departs this life to join the heavenly host who led her to eternal rest and peace. She will be welcomed by her nurturing mother Patricia, strong father Marvin, compassionate grandmother Alma, and maternal aunts, uncles, and cousin,. She is survived by her devoted husband, three beautiful children, a loving brother and a host of family, friends and relatives.

Nicole will sincerely be missed by everyone who knew her. However, the memory of her affectionate, encouraging and gentle spirit will always remain.
