“ I met Nicole years ago, when we both worked at Buttons & Bows. From the moment I met her, I knew she was a special person. I am so blessed to have called her a friend. We will all miss her love of life, spunky personality, diva style and overall good heart. I send my thoughts and prayers to her friends and family, and especially to her daughter. God bless, sweet one. Until we meet again.

“ Nicole was a true gem, and will be missed by all. She brought her smile and joy to everyone she met. Nicole was an angel on earth and now she will be an angel with God to watch over us all.

Yvonne Gifford - August 18, 2015 at 09:08 AM

“ Although I never met Nicole, it is obvious she was a beautiful person. All the more reason for our heavenly father to keep her in his memory. Just as Jesus spoke to Martha for comfort, may God's word comfort Nicole's family and friends during your time of sorrow. "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life (John 11:25)

“Nicole's spirit was a shining light. Her love and devotion for her daughter and mother and father were the focus of her life. To know her was to know someone who carried on her life with courage and without complaint. Her bright smile will be missed.

“*I worked with Nicole at Wells Fargo and her presence is greatly missed and her decorative style will always be fondly remembered. Nicole and I both loved purple. I will miss hearing about Lil Ms. Diva (who was molded in her mommy's like image) who was a diva in her own right as she had learned from the best! I'll miss seeing Nicole's smile become even brighter as she told us the latest updates about her baby girl and we would crack up laughing. Rest in Paradise Nicole. Continue to look over your family, friends, and work family until we meet again. May God continue to encamp his angels around your family during this difficult time. “ I was gonna see you tomorrow, Remember? We had sooo much catching up to do. We had time to reminisce...Time to share ALL of our adventures with our children...Remember ! We didn't tell them yet. They don't know about the sleepovers, Disneyland, ALL of the Saturdays we spent getting our ponytails pressed and curled, Marshmallows, Marshmallows roasted in the fireplace Nikki. The babies don't know that I was as BEAUTIFUL as I was at my wedding because YOU did my make-up. We didn't tell them yet because we ALWAYS had tomorrow. Tomorrow just became Yesterday. How did we let that happen ? We have sooo much of us left to share not just with our kids but with each other...I LOVE and will forever MISS you Nick-Noe.

LOVE,

Your Aunt (On Paper)

Your Cousin (In the eyes of the world)

Your Big Sister (In our Hearts !)

“ Shining Star
The angels looked down from heaven one night
They searched for miles afar,
And deep within the distance
They could see a shining star.

They knew that very instant
That the star was theirs to gain,
So they took you up to heaven
Forever to remain.

Look down on us from heaven
Keep us free from hurt and pain,
You'll always be within our hearts
Until we meet again.

“ Nicole was more than a colleague, she was more than a cubemate... she was my lil sister. She was my friend. She possessed a light that made you smile no matter what you were going through. Nicole would tell you quickly, "Uh huh... don't bring that here... get yoself together!!!" She was a beautiful mix of Divaliciousness and ya ride or die chick!! She had a flair that could only be desceibed in one word.... NICOLE. Love you!!! My prayers to the family.

“ Sweet Nicole was my biggest fan- she knew I was trying to get in a band and I auditioned many times for many bands throughout this year here in Richmond and Nicole was my biggest supporter....always lifting me up to stay the course and not give up on my dreams. Although she never was able to hear me sing at my gigs she was always there by my side in spirit. She is fondly remembered in my heart as a cherished colleague // Ramona Maintanis
