

Nicole Delores Green

July 4, 1972 - August 23, 2024

NICOLE DELORES GREEN, affectionately known as Nicki, was born on July 4, 1972, to Maxine D. Sampson-Green and David E. Green, both of whom preceded her in death. On August 23, 2024, Nicole departed this life, leaving a legacy of love, laughter, and devotion to her family and friends.

Nicole was born and raised in Baltimore City, where she attended Baltimore City Schools and proudly received her diploma. Throughout her life, Nicole held several jobs, with her longest tenure at the Social Security Administration. Her quiet nature masked her vibrant spirit, which shone brightly at gatherings with loved ones, where she would often be the life of the party. Nicole cherished these moments, and she reveled in music, dancing, and laughter. Some of her favorite songs included Shirley Murdock's "As We Lay" and "Go On Without You," as well as TLC's "Red Light Special."

Beyond her love for music and gatherings, Nicole's heart was filled with a deep love for her family. She was always there to protect and care for those close to her, a testament to the boundless compassion she carried within. Nicole also found joy in traveling, experiencing new places and creating memories with those she held dear.

Nicole spent most of her life with her preteen sweetheart, Paul Tindall. Although they never wed, Paul's unwavering love and support were constants throughout Nicole's life. He stood by her through every challenge, never leaving her side.

Nicole's memory will be cherished by her common-law husband, Paul Tindall; her grandmother, Adelaide Wilson; her stepmother, Linda Green; and her sisters, Dawnet Taylor (Mark), Renee Sampson-Pack (James), Deborah Wharton, Synethia, Edwanda, Lynn McLamb (Anthony), and Kim Welch. She is also survived by her brother, David Green Jr. (Michael Sampson and Albert Howard IV preceded in death), and a host of beloved family members, including her favorite aunt Carolyn Ann Turner, her dear sister cousins, Robin and Andrea, Pedie and many other aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Nicole was preceded in death by her parents, as well as her brother cousin Marvin, who will forever remain in the hearts of those who loved her.

Nicole will be remembered for her radiant presence, her love of family, and the beauty she brought to every life she touched. May her soul rest in eternal
