

Nicole L. Richardson

August 16, 1971 - April 26, 2003

Nicole L. Richardson, daughter of Ruth Brooks and Curtis Dupree, was born on August 16, 1971 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on April 26, 2003, as a mother's sacrifice for her child. Nicole L. Richardson, known to family and friends as Nikki, was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Nicole worked as an Assistant Director for Fitness Fun and Games Youth Place. Nicole worked also in Baltimore public schools as a Computer Teacher. Nicole loved all children. Nicole was full of life, she loved to make people laugh and feel good about themselves. She loved to play with her children and make them laugh. Her children were her life. She was outgoing and accomplished anything she set out to do. She had the biggest heart ever. Anyone who came into her life she made them her family. She took everyone's problems as her own. She gave so much to everyone who was in her life, more than she received.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Ruth Brooks; fiancé, Jermaine Ridgeway; children, Amanda (14), Brittany (13) Hamlin, Crystal (12) and Jermaine (10) Ridgeway; sisters, Destiney Jackson and Adrienne Richardson; two aunts, Rhonda Booth and Renee Jones; two uncles, Jonathan Booth and Thomas Jones; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, godchildren and extended family.

She will always have a place in our hearts. Our mother and brother may not be here in mind, body and soul, But without them our bodies will never again be whole. She was the most beautiful and loveable, and oh so awesome, He was tough and now we have lost them Both our youngest brother, yes we fussed a lot And then when you think about it she is all that we got I know me, my brother, father and sisters will always be together And in the process we'll miss her He was so young and only seven Even though we want him here he will be better off in heaven Mom, you are our hero you went to get your son and if anybody had to go And same someone you would be the one We want to thank you for having us in your life And you will always be my daddy's wife Trust us, no one will compare to the both of you. By Amanda, Brittany, Crystal, Erica and Jermaine We love you very much, because you had that special touch. By Amanda, Brittany, Crystal, Erica and Jermaine MOTHER'S LOVE When her children are frightened she is there to quell their fears When her children are ill only mothers can provide the most gentle care When they cry she is there to wipe their tears And say the sweetest words like music to their ears Mother's love it's a love that never leaves our hearts A love that's always near There is a place where we know Mother's Love lives here. Loving Sisters

“ I'll miss Nicole and her family living next door to us. The children would play with my grandson Tyrelle like he was their little brother, Ty still talks about his friend Marguise and how much he misses him. We just let him know that Marguise is with the angels now. next door neighbors, Pearl, Gina, Tyrelle and Tajah###imported-begin###Pearl Price###imported-end###

“ I do not know this young lady but her story touched my heart very deeply and left an impression more than words can ever explain. As a mother of four my daily prayer is to live long enough for them to fin for themselves. I pray that God will guid and protect her children. I am also praying for those relatives and/or friends who will be in charge of her precious little ones. I also pay for comfort for her relatives. May her soul rest in peace. Much love and concern from: A stranger.###imported-begin###Veronica Hesson###imported-end###

“ My prayers and deepest sympathies to the Richardson family on the loss of your loved ones. I've known Nicole for less than a year, but it seemed like so much longer. She was a wonderful person to have working with my children, Brandon and Jasmine Gray. Her concern for the the kids she worked with was always sincere. She will be missed so very much, not only by me but also by my children. May the Lord give your peace in your time of loss. God Bless You All.##imported-begin##Juanita Ward##imported-end##
