“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At a time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter, verses 8 and 9. It states: “He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’” What a time to look forward to! May God’s word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ I wish to extend my sincere and deepest sympathy to your family at this time. For the longest time people the world over have to contend with many sicknesses, the effects of old-age, and death. This sorrow was never God's purpose for us. Just by listening to the words of the Lord's prayer helps us to appreciated that point, because that prayer Jesus taught us says, "Thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth; just as it is in heaven. We've never been to heaven, but we can believe that everything in heaven is peaceful and free of sickness and death, so when God's will is done on earth then we will also be free of these things which cause us so much grief. Jehovah even makes this wonderful promise at Isaiah 25,8 that he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Jehovah loves life, and he hates death, and we can rest assured that one day all pain and sorrow will be gone forever. Please find comfort in his wonderful promises, and may his loving-kindness surround you always.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
