

Nina Mae Douglass

September 5, 1939 - November 5, 2005

NINA MAE DOUGLASS was born in Baltimore, Maryland on September 5, 1939, the daughter of William Douglass and Florence Mondowney. She attended Baltimore City public schools and was a graduate of Carver Vocational Technical High School. Shortly after graduating, she joined the United States Army and served several years before being honorably discharged. She worked for five years at Western Electric until health issues made it necessary to resign. Nina enjoyed shopping, reading, talking on the phone and spending time with family. She was very inquisitive and would ask question after question to whomever she conversed. She had a remarkable memory and was able to retain a multitude of facts on many subjects. Nina had just settled into her new apartment after her long-time residence on Caroline Street was destroyed in a fire earlier this year. While she eagerly anticipated having her own place again, she was able to enjoy several months of loving care and attention while living with her brother and his wife until her apartment was ready. She is survived by: her brother, Ollen W. Douglass (Delores); her sister, Sandra Watson; a special companion, John Henry Lee; loving nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of extended family and friends.

“ To the family and friends, my deepest condolences. May you cherish her memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
